

Action on Aboriginal Perspectives in Early Childhood (AAPEC) presents

Placing Kulin stories in early childhood education

Wednesday 14 March | 6pm - 8.30 pm

Royal Park Nature Playground

Presented by

Annette Sax | Taungurung Early Childhood Consultant, Artist and Storyteller | Yarn Strong Sista
Dr Catherine Hamm | Lecturer | College of Art and Education, Victoria University

About

This workshop is a unique opportunity to engage respectfully with Kulin knowledges in the local places where we live and work. Participants will respond to the following questions through small group discussions and hands-on learning experiences.

Questions:

- How can settlers engage respectfully with Kulin knowledges?
- How can we pay attention to Kulin perspectives of place?
- What does it mean to embed Aboriginal worldviews in early childhood practice?
